Launching Pad™ Course

Aspects participants felt benefited them the most.

- Speaker's experience
- Meeting the other advisors and having the time to think and define what I can deliver to them and to family businesses
- Networking with other advisors
- Overall, the openness displayed by all Presenters, Contributors and Attendees. This was so refreshing compared to similar Conventions and such gatherings within the corporate environment. There were very few examples of ego getting in the way; there was a great willingness to help each other learn of to become more involved.
- Practical aspects - would like to see more
- Interaction of the different types of advisers was excellent.
- The models
- The session evoked a good amount of participation from those involved. All attendees appeared to be in similar roles to myself in regards to advising family businesses.
- The shift in mind set and all the experiences shared by presenters
- The use of three circle model
- Understanding the attributes, beyond merely proficient professional advice, required by a competent Family Business Adviser.
- Knowledgeable and engaging, great presenter!
- I wanted to come away from the course having a better understanding of the family issues and solutions that I have not previously encountered at a deeper level - this was achieved!
- It made sense and provided guidance
- The content matched the needs of the audience appropriately.
- Thought it was just right and the attached reading material very useful as well.
- Discovering that I was on the right track
