Kell & Rigby wins Deloitte Growth Award

3April 2009: The 2009 NSW/ACT Family Business Australia/Deloitte Growth Award was today awarded to Kell & Rigby, a NSW- based, fourth generation construction business which has been a recipient of several construction awards including work done for State Hockey Centre, Epping RSL, Sydney University, the ANA Hotel and Parliament House.

The award was announced at the NSW & ACT Family Business Australia (FBA) Conference. This award has been established to recognize and reward the fastest growing private enterprises in NSW and ACT. The award recognises family businesses that have achieved the fastest average turnover growth over the last three years.

Raelene Berryman, Deloitte Growth Solutions partner said: “This growth award has been given to Kell & Rigby based on their revenue growth, the number of years they have been in business and the fact they are a fourth generation family business.

“I was particularly impressed with Kell & Rigby’s solid business growth combined with the length of time they have been in business, having been established in 1910.

“Having a 4th generation business as our winner is inspirational for the family businesses who drive our economy and is a goal worth striving for. Kell & Rigby demonstrates that family businesses who understand the core profit drivers and have a long term strategy will survive for several generations,” added Ms Berryman.

The second Growth Award winner, for a business operating for less than 15 years, went to Prografica a first generation marketing Communication Company, which offers a wide variety of in-house services to a range of clientele across a variety of industries. Prografica has the basis to become a powerhouse in years and generations to come.
